Who We Are

The Illinois Water Environment Association is a community of dedicated professionals working to advance fundamental knowledge of our water environment. Its members are engineers, scientists, plant operators, and students. They work at wastewater treatment plants, engineering firms, and manufacturers of water treatment equipment.

Our Objectives Include:

- Advancing the fundamental knowledge of the water environment, its basic qualities, and physical laws governing its interaction with other aspects of the environment and with the aesthetic, economic, and biological needs of the earth's inhabitants.
- Advancing the knowledge and technology in the design, construction, operation and management of the water quality systems and facilities.
- Increasing the knowledge and understanding of the earth's water environment, and encourage and promote action necessary for its enhancement.
- Developing and implementing effective delivery mechanisms to rapidly disseminate knowledge concerning the water environment to members and other interested parties.
- Promoting sound policy in matters relating to the water environment.
- Improving the professional status of all personnel engaged in any aspect of protecting and improving the earth's water environment.
- Strengthening and build alliances with organizations throughout the world incorporating members of all professions dedicated to the preservation and enhancement of water quality and resources.
- Stimulating public awareness of the relationship of water resources to the public welfare and the need for pollution prevention, resource recovery, preservation, conservation and reuse of water resources.

Grant Information

Each year IWEA makes contributions to organizations for specific charitable projects related to water and the water environment. In the past, we have made grants to organizations such as Engineers Without Borders and Haiti Outreach. We have also supported student led projects which bring clean water to underserved regions.

We would like to hear of any organizations that are promoting our objectives.
